MAJOR EVENT

VIRTUAL LABS

Virtual Labs programme exclusively organized for the Department of Civil Engineering, J.J. College of Engineering and Technology. It highlights the Virtual Labs initiative of the Ministry of Education, Government of India, which provides students with opportunities to access and perform laboratory-based learning activities through a virtual platform. The programme is scheduled on 22 September 2026 from 11:30 a.m. to 12:40 p.m.

FACULTY ACHIVEMENT

Dear Authors,

Greetings from the International Journal of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning!

We are pleased to inform you that the article titled "Freeze–Thaw Resistance of Sustainable Concrete: Experimental Investigation, Damage Mechanisms, and AI/ML-Based Performance Prediction" has been ACCEPTED for publication in the upcoming Volume of International Journal of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning with ISSN: 2789-2557.

This letter of acceptance is considered as an official acceptance of your manuscript with no further amendments required.

Following a thorough review process, the Editorial Board has approved your submission in its current form, and no further revisions are required at this stage. This communication serves as the official confirmation of acceptance of your manuscript.

If you have any further queries kindly feel free to contact us. Thank you for your contribution. We look forward to publishing your work.

Thanks and regards,

Dr. A. Ananthi, Professor and Head of the Department of Civil Engineering, successfully submitted a research manuscript to a reputed international journal. Following the completion of the peer-review and editorial process, the manuscript received an acceptance notification from the journal. The journal is categorized under the Q3 quartile, indicating its position within the third quartile of journals in its relevant subject category. Scopus journal quartiles are determined within specific subject categories and may vary according to the metric, category, and year.
